

PRESS RELEASE

2/23/10

Teacher and poet, Ruth Ann Peck will speak about her life and work when she visits Tipp City Public Library at 2 p.m., on Saturday, March 13.

Ms. Peck won the 2008 Dayton Daily News poetry contest with her work “The Silent Grass”, and that same year her collection of poetry, Rowing Through the Night was published. She teaches a class at The University of Dayton’s Lifelong Learning Institute called “Discovering the Poet Within You”. During the first hour of her visit, Ms. Peck will speak on the writing process. During the second hour, members of the Tipp City Library Scribes will share some of their work. The program is open to all.

MORE FOR ADULTS

Brown Bag Program

Needle-worker extraordinaire, Karen Jamison will lead a Brown Bag Lunch Program, Make and Take Crochet, at noon on Wednesday, March 10. She will teach the half-double crochet stitch and guide participants through making an eyeglass case, sunglasses case, coupon purse, or clutch bag. All supplies and crochet hooks will be provided. All skill levels are welcome, including novices. Registration is appreciated.

For those who have not yet entered the “Remember February Fondly Photo Contest”: Time is running out. Entering is easy. Simply visit the photo display, identify the snow-covered landmarks, and fill out your entry form. Entries with the most correctly identified sites will be entered into a prize-drawing. A winner will be selected on March 13.
